RE: Honey Hollow Camp

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wooden:

It is a great pleasure to present you with a National Register of Historic Places certificate for your property. This certificate is being awarded during National Historic Preservation Week, May 14 to 20, 1995, by the Vermont Division for Historic Preservation to recognize those properties that were listed on the National Register in the past year.

The National Register, which is maintained by the National Park Service, is the official list of the nation's properties that have historic, architectural, archeological, or cultural significance and are worthy of preservation.

Over 8,200 properties in Vermont have been listed in the National Register of Historic Places, with most of the buildings being located in over 100 historic districts.

The cultural resource you maintain is an important part of the heritage of Vermont and the nation. Congratulations on the recognition your property has attained through its listing in the National Register and thank you for your efforts to preserve our heritage for the benefit of this and future generations.

Sincerely,
